The Virtues of Surah Ikhlas

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ① اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ ②

لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ③ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ ④

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Say: He is Allah, the Only One. Allah, the Independent (whom all creatures need),

He begets not, nor is He begotten.

And there is none like Him.

Allamah Armayuni has said:

“Regarding surah Ikhlas, there are 40 ahadeeth, which with the hope of Allah’s mercy, Yusuf Bin Abdullah Al-husiani Al-alarmiyuni, the student of Sheikhul Islam Jalal Udeen Suyooti has compiled.”

Means of Revelation:

Hadeeth 1:

Waaqidee (May Allah have mercy upon him) has written in the Asbaabe-Nuzool that a few Jews came into the presence of the Prophet (SA). They said to him, “Tell us of Allah’s qualities, because in the Torah, Allah has mentioned his qualities.” On that occasion, Allah revealed surah Ikhlas.

Ubay ibn Ka’ab (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the polytheists said, “Oh Prophet of Allah! Tell us about the lineage of your Lord.” At this moment, surah Ikhlas was revealed.

Hadeeth 2:

Ubay Ibn Ka’ab (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said: “He who recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ, it is as if he has recited one third of the Quran.”

Hadeeth 3:

Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said: "He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ once, it is as if he has recited one third of the Quran. And whoever recites it twice, it is as if he has recited two thirds of the Quran, and whoever recites it thrice, it is as if he has recited the whole Quran."

Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas at the time of sleeping:

Hadeeth 4:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) has said: "If you lie on your bed and recite surah Fatiha and هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, then you will be protected from everything, besides death."

Aisha (May Allah be pleased with her) has said, regarding the Prophet (SA): "When he used to come daily to sleep on his bed, he would bring his palms together, and would recite هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, and هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, and blow on them, and starting from his head and face, would pass them all over the front his body, wherever he could reach to. He would do this three times."

Ibn Mardawaih has narrated from Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) that the Prophet (SA) said: "At the time of sleeping whoever recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, and the Mua'wadhatayn (surah Falak and surah Naas) three times, and if he dies at night, then his death will be like that of a martyr, and if he lives, all his sins shall be forgiven."

It has been narrated from Abdullah Bin Khubaib (May Allah be pleased with him) that the Prophet (SA) said to him: "Recite هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ and the Mua'wadhatayn (هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ) thrice in the morning and the evening, this will suffice for you in everything."

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas on the Day of Jum'uah:

Hadeeth 5:

Aisha (May Allah be pleased with her) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said: "Whoever recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ, and هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ seven times after the Friday prayer, then Allah will protect him from all evil until the following Friday."

Saeed Bin Mansoor (May Allah have mercy upon him) has narrated that Makhool said: "He who recites Surah Fatiha, the Mua'wadhatayn (surah Falak and surah Naas) and هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ seven times after the Friday prayer, before he begins to speak, then Allah will compensate for all the sins he committed between the two Fridays."

Ibn Zanjaweeyah has taken these words from Ibn Shihab that the Prophet (SA) said: "Whoever prays هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ and the Mua'wadhatayn (surah Falak and surah Naas) seven times each, after the Friday prayer without talking after the imam has recited the salam, him and his wealth shall be protected until the following Jum'uah."

Abu Ubayd, Ibn Abi Shaybah, and Ibn Ad Dhwirees have narrated from Asma Bint Abi Bakr (May Allah have mercy upon her), that whoever prays the Friday prayer and thereafter recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ and the Mua'wadhatayn (surah Falak and surah Naas) seven times each, he will be protected from this Jumu'ah until the next.

In another narration it has been said that surah Fatiha should also be prayed.

The best prayer for safeguarding from every evil:

Hadeeth 6:

Uthman Bin Affan (May Allah be pleased him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) prayed this Dua to me and put me in Allah's refuge,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ أَعِيْذُكَ بِالْأَحَدِ الصَّمَدِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَجِدُ

The Prophet (SA) recited this seven times, and when I (Uthman) was intending to stand up, he said: "O Uthman! With these words, gain the refuge of Allah (Make Dua with them and blow on yourself). There are no other words with which you can gain the refuge of Allah better than these."

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas after Salah:

Hadeeth 7:

Jabir Bin Abdullah (May Allah be pleased with them) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

"There are three actions, if which a person does, he will enter Jannah through the door he wishes, and he will be married to the Hoor ul Ayn (the maidens of Jannah) wherever he likes. The one who forgives the killer, pays off even small debts and recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ten times after every salah." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (May Allah be pleased with him) asked, "What about one action from the three?" The Prophet (SA) replied "Or one from the three."

Hadeeth 8:

Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said: "Whoever recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ after every Fajr salah 10 times, Allah makes his happiness and forgiveness Wajib upon him."

Hadeeth 9:

Tameem Dari (RA) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

"He who recites

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ إِلَهًا وَاحِدًا
صَمَدًا لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ صَاحِبَةً وَلَا وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا

after the morning prayer ten times, Allah will write down for him forty thousand good deeds."

Hadeeth 10:

Muadh Bin Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who prays قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ten times, Allah will make a house in Jannah for him.” Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) said, “So I will pray much more.” The Prophet (SA) said, “Allah will give you more and even better (in reward).”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas for the deceased:

Hadeeth 11:

Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:
“Whoever passes by a graveyard and recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ for the dead, he will gain the reward equal to the number of the deceased.”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas after Fajr:

Hadeeth 12:

Abu Hurayrah (RA) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who prays قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ twelve times after Fajr salah, it is as if he has prayed the Quran four times, and if he abstains from sins, on this day he will be counted from amongst the most righteous of the earth.”

Hadeeth 13:

Khalid Bin Zayd Ansaari (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who prays twenty rakaats between Maghrib and Eisha, and in every rakat he recites surah Fatiha and قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ, Allah will create two palaces in Jannah for him, without faults and gaps between them.”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas at the times of sleeping:

Hadeeth 14

Uthman (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ thirty times at the time of sleeping, Allah will create one thousand palaces for him in Jannah. And he who recites it two hundred times, Allah will grant him a rank with which he shall be happy with. And in the house in which قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ is recited, the dwellers of the house as well as the neighbours will benefit from it.”

Hadeeth 15:

Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who performs two rakaats after Eisha salah, and in every rakaat recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ fifteen times, Allah will create two palaces for him in Jannah.”

Hadeeth 16:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who performs twelve rakaats after Magrib Salah, and in every rakat recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ forty times, on the Day of Judgment the angels will shake hands with him.”

Hadeeth 17:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ fifty times, Allah will forgive his sins.”

Hadeeth 18:

Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ fifty times every day, on the Day of Judgement he will be called “Oh the one who praises Allah! Stand up and enter Jannah.”

Hadeeth 19:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ one hundred times, Allah will forgive fifty years' worth of sins, as long as he safeguards himself from four sins: from killing, stealing, adultery and drinking alcohol.”

Hadeeth 20:

Fayrowz (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ one hundred times in or out of salah, Allah will write for him to be safeguarded from Jahannam.”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas on the night of Friday:

Hadeeth 21:

Ibn Umar (May Allah be pleased with them) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ on the night of Jum'uah one hundred times, he has certainly fulfilled the rights of Jum'uah like the Carriers of the Arsh have fulfilled the rights of the Arsh.”

Hadeeth 22:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“Whosoever recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدُ one hundred times in the state of wudhu, and starts with Surah Fatiha, Allah will write in place of every letter recited ten good deeds, will raise his status by ten ranks, and will create a hundred palaces for him in Jannah.”

Hadeeth 23:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who lays upon his right side on his bed intending to sleep and then recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ one hundred times, Allah will say to him on the Day of Judgement, “O my Servant! Enter the Jannah on your right side.”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas on the Day of Arafat:

Hadeeth 24:

Jabir (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“The Muslim who does wukoof (resides) on the plains of Arafat after zawal (zenith) and then recites whilst facing the qibla:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَ لَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَ هُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

100 times and thereafter recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ one hundred times, and then recites:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَ عَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَ عَلَى آلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ وَ عَلَيْنَا مَعَهُم

one hundred times, Allah says to his angels, “O my Angels! What is the abode of this servant of mine who remembered my purity, has said لا اله الا الله, has remembered my greatness, has remembered my grandeur, has recognised me, has praised me, and has sent salutations upon my Prophet? O my Angels, bear witness that I have forgiven him, and I will accept intercession for himself, and if my servant prays for all the people in Arafat, I will also accept his intercession.”

Hadeeth 25:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ one hundred times after Fajr Salah without talking to anyone, the deeds of fifty siddiqueen will be written for him on that day.”

Hadeeth 26:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ two hundred times, Allah will forgive two years of his sins.”

Ibn Umar (May Allah be pleased with them) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who enters the Masjid on the day of Friday and performs four rakaats in such a way that in every rakaat after Surah Fatiha he recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ fifty times - this will become a total two hundred times - death will not come to him until he sees his place in Jannah or until it is shown to him.”

Hadeeth 27:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ two hundred times, fifty years of his sins shall be forgiven, on condition that he is not in debt.”

Hadeeth 28:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ two hundred times daily, Allah will write down one thousand five hundred good deeds for him, on condition that he is not in debt.”

Hadeeth 29:

Hudhayfa Bin Yaman (RA) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ one thousand times, it is as if he has bought himself from Allah.”

Hadeeth 30:

Ibn Umar (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ one thousand times on the evening of the Day of Arafat, Allah will accept his every supplication.”

Hadeeth 31:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ once, blessings will descend upon him, and he who recites it twice, blessings will descend upon him and his family, and if he recites it thrice, blessings will descend upon him, his family and his neighbours. If he recites it twelve times, Allah will create a palace for him in Jannah, and the Angels will say, “Come, let us see the palace of our brother.” And if he recites it one hundred times, Allah will forgive twenty five years of his sins, except for killing and theft. If he recites it three hundred times, Allah will write for him the reward of four hundred martyrs whose horses’ hooves have been cut and have been killed. And he recites it one thousand times will not die until he sees his place in Jannah or until it is shown to him.”

The Virtue of reciting Surah Ikhlas when entering the home:

Hadeeth 32:

Jareer Bin Abdullah Al Bajli (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ when entering his home, poverty will be kept away from him and his neighbours.”

The Virtues of reciting Surah Ikhlas at the time of death:

Hadeeth 33:

Abdullah Bin Shikheer (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) said:

“He who recites هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ during his fatal illness will not be questioned in his grave, will be protected from the compressing of the grave, and the Angels will carry him upon their shoulders and make him cross the Bridge of Siraat.”

Hadeeth 34:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that Jibraeel (AS) came to the Prophet (SA) and said, "O Muhammad! Muawiyah Bin Muawiyah al Muzanniyu has passed away. Would you like to pray the Janazah salah upon him?" The Prophet (SA) said, "Yes." Jibraeel (AS) struck his two wings, and all the trees and peaks moved from view, and the bier was brought forward until the Prophet (SA) saw it, and he prayed the Janazah Salah. Behind him, were two rows of angels, with seventy thousand angels in each row. The Prophet (SA) asked Jibraeel (AS), "How did Muawiyah gain this status?" He answered, "Through the love of قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ when coming and going; standing and sitting and due to praying it in every state."

Hadeeth 35:

Aisha (May Allah be pleased with her) has narrated that the Prophet (SA) appointed a man as the leader of a battalion. When he was leading his companions in prayer, he finished with the recital of قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ. They (the companions) told the Prophet (SA) about this. He said, "Ask him why he did this." He answered, "Because Allah's qualities have been mentioned in it, and therefore I like to pray it." The Prophet (SA) said, "Tell him that Allah loves him."

Hadeeth 36:

Anas (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that a man said, "O Prophet of Allah! I love this surah, قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ." The Prophet (SA) said, "Your love for it will gain you entry into Jannah."

Hadeeth 37:

Rajaa's (May Allah be pleased with him) hand was injured in the Battle of Jamal. On this occasion, he related that the Prophet (SA) said, "Get cured with the surah in which Allah has praised himself, before the creation could praise him, and get cured with the Surah in which Allah has praised himself."

Rajaa (May Allah be pleased with him) narrated that he said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you O Prophet of Allah! Which surahs are they?" He said, "Alhamdu Lillah, (meaning Surah Fatiha) and قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ. Whoever the Quran does not heal, Allah will not heal them."

Hadeeth 38:

Anas (RA) has narrated that when a conch is played, Allah's anger increases, and the angels descend on the face of the earth and start reciting قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ, until Allah's anger subsides."

Hadeeth 39:

Ali (May Allah be pleased with him) has narrated that the Prophet was bitten by a scorpion when he was praying salah. When he completed his salah, he said, "Allah curse the scorpion, it leaves neither one who observes salah, nor one who does not observe salah." He then he ordered some water and salt, and began dabbing the bitten part with it, and recited قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ and قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ نَاسٍ and blew on it

Hadeeth 40:

Amir Bin Abd Qays (May Allah be pleased with him) has said, "He who recites قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ he should not recite anything else from the Quran with it to keep it separate, as from beginning to end it is linked with Allah the Almighty."
